

KEYNOTE LUNCHEON SPEAKER

SATURDAY, MARCH 17, 2012

Ottawa Convention Centre

Larry Alexandre, President, Heli-One

Mr. Alexandre was appointed President of Heli-One in June of 2011.

Mr. Alexandre has extensive leadership experience in aerospace manufacturing and MRO. The former CEO of Sagem Avionics, a member of the Safran group of companies, Mr. Alexandre has also held leadership positions with Turbomeca as COO of that company's businesses in the USA, Canada, and Brazil, as well as Teleflex's aerospace division.

Mr. Alexandre has an impressive record of driving cultural change in the companies he has led around the world, with a unique focus on lean deployment as an enabler for change. He has successfully led initiatives globally to increase synergies between business units, reduce inventory, improve productivity and reduce lead times, while relentlessly driving customer focus and satisfaction into every process of the organization.
